Mr. A. Cooper of Medicine Hat is visiting his brother C. F. Cooper the storekeeper at Three Hills. Mr. Cooper was greatly surprised when reaching here at the splendid condition in which the crops and everything appeared to be.

Mr. Lou Kalbfleisch, of the firm of Reitzel & Kalbfleisch, returned from a 200 mile trip through the east country on Thursday last. He reports that the country in the extreme eastern part of the district as being in rather poor condition on account of the dry weather they have had.

Messrs. Studer, Hembling, Patterson and Osmond spent Dominion Day at the Fallen Timber Creek and in the foot hills on a fishing excursion. They returned home with a big string of trout and grayling and experienced a good time, the weather being all that could be desired. The excellent condition of all the crops in the country through which they passed was the subject for much remark by the party. Fall wheat is of good height and is heading out, spring wheat is in splendid condition and while the timothy is a little short there promises to be a good crop, and pasturage is in its prime. Altogether the west country is "Right in it" this year to use a common expression.

Have you subscribed to the Mill yet? This means as much to you as to anyone—it increases the value of your farm and gives you higher prices for your grain. These are only two reasons out of a great many why you should subscribe.

Don't forget E. L. Tyner's sale of registered horses on Tuesday, July 12th, at J. Norquay's farm, Sec. 18, T. 30, R. 25, and about 25 miles east of Carstairs and 6 miles south of Sunnyslope on Kneehill Creek. G. B. Sexsmith, auctioneer.

Rev. Mr. Gugin received a telegram on Wednesday stating that his brother George had been nearly killed at his home at Kindersley. There was no definite information as to his injuries but the accident was caused by the wind blowing his shack down.

A Bad Runaway Accident

A team of horses getting scared at a convert that was being repaired was nearly the cause of killing one man and injuring a little boy in town on Wednesday morning. The team was being driven by Mr. M. Spencer, who came to this district from the States about three months ago. Mr. Spencer held on to the lines as long as he could but finally had to let go and was thrown to the ground, the wagon passing over the upper part of his legs. He was taken to Dr. Reid's office at once and everything possible was done to relieve him. No bones were broken but he is badly bruised. The little boy escaped without injury. Mr. James Reid caught the team, which were uninjured.

The Colored Man Wins

The prize fight between Jeffries and Johnson resulted in a victory for the colored fighter. Fifteen rounds were fought but through the efforts of backers of both fighters Johnson did not knock Jeffries out but was given the decision on the count.

Jeffries was clearly outclassed all the way through the fight with the exception of one round and even then he did not make much impression on the colored man.

THE HORRORS OF STOMACH TORTURE

INDIGESTION OF A LIFETIME PROMPTLY CURED BY "FRUIT-A-TIVES."

Mrs. J. B. Flock, of London, Ont., for years received the best medical attention that Canada afforded.

Her husband was a prominent physician, yet his skill and that of his colleagues was of no avail in helping Mrs. Flock.

She writes, "I was a constant martyr to Stomach Weakness all my life and no physician could cure me, but 'Fruit-a-tives' gave me entire relief and I cordially recommend this famous fruit medicine to the public."

"Fruit-a-tives" corrects all disorders of digestion, and is a positive and speedy cure for Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Constipation.

"Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at the box, 6 for $2.50, or trial box, 25c, or may be obtained from Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

Minard's Liniment Cures Stomper.

"He was actually nervous when he proposed."

"So were you, dear? I did so, were you not, dear?"

Clean Stomach, Clear Mind.—The stomach is the workshop of all vital functions and when it gets out of order the whole system closes in sympathy. The spirits flag, the mind droops and work becomes impossible.

The first cure should be to restore healthful action of the stomach and the best preparation for that purpose is Minard's Vegetable Pills. General use for years has won them a leading place in medicine. A trial will attest their value.

The man who agrees with everybody soon gets the reputation of having good judgment.

They Stay at Home

"Yes, sir." The caddie regarded the corrupted turf with the eye with a thoughtful frown. "Yes, sir, since you ask me the question, there are worse players than you."

"I thought so? I thought so," said the golfer.

"But they have the sense," added the expert, "not to play golf, but to stay at home and do freeseaving."

The Pill That Leads Them All.—Pills are the most portable and convenient of all medicines, and when used to take are the most acceptable of preparations. But they must attest their power to be popular. As Parmed's Vegetable Pills are the most popular of all pills they must fully meet all requirements. Accurately compounded and composed of ingredients proven to be effective in regulating the digestive organs, there is no safer medicine to be had any where.

A doctor was the guest of a well-known explorer, and one night, when the latter had been telling of an Avat attack which ended fatally for his assistant, the doctor asked: "How do you feel, captain, when you kill a man?" "I feel as if I had put a nail in my back," and then replied, "I don't know, doctor. How do you?"

Lawyer—Yes, if his letters are read in court.

ANEMIA'S VICTIMS

Can Find New Health in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Anemia is simply a lack of blood. It therefore follows that the correct treatment for anemia is one that increases the blood supply. And this is the only treatment that can possibly be successful. The symptoms of anemia are easily recognized. Pale skin, listlessness, the failure of food to nourish, headaches and other ailments, women and girls, lack of energy and palpitation of the heart. To restore the blood supply to its normal quantity and quality Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can be recommended with confidence. First because they are known to have cured thousands of anemic people—the highest possible recommendation. Secondly, they actually contain the ingredients that combine with the food and oxygen to make rich, red blood, without which no man, woman or growing boy or girl can be healthy.

Mrs. E. M. Bell, Red Deer, Alberta, writes: "When I was a young girl, I had been suffering for a couple of years from anemic blood. Doctors told me to do everything for me that could be done, but to no purpose. The doctors said I must not live, but that a change of climate might prolong my life, so my father brought me to Alberta. For a month I did seem to improve, but soon became as bad, if not worse than before I left Ontario. I could not walk a couple of miles on the street, and I stood in a room for more than a few minutes without fainting. Life was a burden. I did not eat what I wished, and I had given up hope of getting better. It was at this time Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were brought to my attention, and a supply was got for me. After I had used the second bottle I thought I felt different, and I continued taking the Pills until I had used nine or ten boxes, when I felt like a new person. I could now ride a bicycle and skate without the dreadful pains in my limbs I had before. I was experienced, and in every way was enjoying better health than ever before in my life. Now, whenever I feel a trace of a touch, I turn at once to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I am constantly recommending them to my friends."

Sold by all medicine dealers or to me at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50. Write to Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The manager of a music hall was testing the abilities of a few candidates for stage honors, and this is how he put them to the test.

"Your songs would do for me. I can't allow any profanity in my theatre," said he. "But I don't use profanity," was the reply. "No, said the manager, but the audience would."

The Oil for the Farmer.—A bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the farm house will save many a journey for the doctor. It is not only good for the children when taken with colds and croup, and for the mother who suffers from pains and aches, but there are directions for its use on sick cattle. It should always be a bottle of it in the house.

Coast Guard—Yes, they raise all their own vegetables on that light house.

Tripper—Dear me! How do they manage to do that?

Coast Guard—With a rope!—Comic Cuts.

"I hope so. But it will be necessary for me to settle up before I get home."

THE OFFICE OF SPEAKER.

It is an Important and Coveted Post in British Commons.

Lord Selby's death is sincerely regretted by politicians of every school of thought in England. A man of amiable character, with charming manners and urbane temper, he had many friends on both sides of the House.

For ten years, 1885-1900, he filled the great office of Speaker of the British Commons. He was a very handsome man, with a stately carriage, fresh complexion, and classic features. No Speaker ever looked the part to greater advantage. But Mr. Gully will not rank with the great Speakers. Once or twice in time of tumult he lost his nerve, and the calling in of the police to remove certain Irish members in 1901 was an error of judgment.

A Liberal in politics, and appointed Speaker by a narrow party majority in 1898, Mr. Gully was severely judged in the Commons. He was not kept up the best traditions of the office. A ruling of his as Speaker in 1900, that he was not to attend the amendments in Mr. Balfour's Education Bill made by the House of Lords, was a serious mistake. Commons men as impairing the historic privileges of the representative of the House, and the House was indignant by the Lords was unquestionably a violation of the Commons' prerogatives. Mr. Gully was not allowed an additional charge on the rates. The House of Lords had no doubt that the Commons were wrong to escape the rock of privilege they sent the clause back to the Commons. A strong Speaker like Mr. Lowther would not have allowed the Commons to do this. Mr. Gully was not a very little known man in the House, and had seldom taken part in debate. There were other formidable candidates for the Speakership. However, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, it is said to recall the fact that "C. H." had so little heart of this dignified office—he had not thought then of the Speakership. The Unionists were favorable to the claim of Mr. Gully, who was then Secretary for War, but Sir William Harcourt, at that time leader of the House, was strongly of opinion that a Front Bench man who had held high political office was not the ideal person for the Speakership. Sir William was anxious that Mr. Leonard Courtney should be appointed as Speaker to succeed Mr. Gully. The proposal, however, Mr. Balfour, when soundly by Sir William, offered to change his mind. He had never before thought of the Speakership, but through more on account of Mr. Courtney's defective eyesight than Mr. Balfour's antagonism.

It was at this stage that Mr. Gully's name was mentioned. Mr. Harcourt, who was then Secretary for War, but Sir William Harcourt, at that time leader of the House, was strongly of opinion that a Front Bench man who had held high political office was not the ideal person for the Speakership.

Since his elevation to the peerage, Lord Selby has been a frequent visitor to the House of Commons. He was present in the Peers' Gallery on several occasions during the consideration of the budget.

A Freak of Nature.

A great natural curiosity is the "blow hole" on the northern coast of New South Wales. It may be found in the middle of a rocky headland running out into the sea. With each successive breaker the ocean spray is sent shooting up into the air, some times from 20 to 400 feet, accompanied by a rumbling noise as of distant thunder, which can be heard for miles. This "blow hole" consists of a perpendicular cavity, nearly circular, with a diameter of about ten feet, and has the appearance of being a crater of an extinct volcano. It is connected with the ocean by a cave about one hundred yards in length. Into this cave waves rush during stormy weather, and as the cave extends some distance further into the rock than the "blow hole," on the entrance of each wave this eddy becomes all compressed into which when the tension becomes too great, blows the water with great force up the perpendicular opening.

Privileges of the Lord Mayor.

The Lord Mayor of London enjoys many privileges during his year of office that are little known to the general public. Not only does he take precedence of the other Aldermen and Sheriffs, but he also has the right of precedence in the City before members of the Royal Household. He controls the City purse, and permission for troops to march through the streets must first be granted by him. He also enjoys the distinction of being the only officer in the kingdom whose commission requires no renewal on the death of the sovereign. If affairs demand it he can at any time claim the right of a private interview with the King. He also has the entrance to all levees and court receptions.

An Indefinite Premium.

"Young man, you gave me your seat."

"Yes, sir."

The word "money" is derived from "moenia," a name given by the Romans to their silver pieces because coined in a building on the Capitoline hill attached to the temple of Jupiter Moneta. ### Each grate bar has three sides—long wear

When only one side of a grate bar is continually next to the fire all the wear is concentrated on that one side. The life of the grate bar is thus naturally just one-third as long as when the wear is distributed on three sides.

That explains why Sunshine grates have three lives. Each of the four grate bars has three sides. Each time the ashes are "rocked down" (no shaking with Sunshine) the side next to the fire can be changed. Thus the life of the grates is greatly prolonged.

When desired, the heavy bull dog teeth on the grates will seize hold of clinkers, grind them up, and drop the particles into the ash-pan.

A Year of Hog Raising in Alberta

By N. K. Sorenson, Markerville, Alberta

I use in my hog business eight acres of land bordering upon the Medicine river. The slope towards the river is covered with brush, and the rest of the land is partly in native grass and partly seeded down with mixed grain for pasturage, which is a great help to keep pigs in good growing condition.

The principal building provides pens for some 50 hogs, and in one end of it I have a feeding room with tanks for storing water and buttermilk. The feed room is surrounded on three sides by feeding yards fenced in and they are arranged so that hogs of nearly the same size are fed together. Outside the regular feed yards I have other buildings used principally for food boxes whenever I find it advisable to separate them from the rest; while these as well as straw stacks are available for farrowing quarters, the sows seem to prefer farrowing in the bushes in summer.

My bunch of hogs is of Yorkshire breed, bred from registered stock and consisted in February, 1909, of 1 boar 13 sows and 27 young hogs for fattening.

During the year the brood sows had 17 litters, totaling 138 pigs of splendid vitality farrowed as follows: 8 litters in March, 5 in May and 4 in August. I bought 65 half grown hogs for fattening between September 11th and November 15th 1909. In February last I had 35 pregnant sows and 2 boars, having sold altogether 207 head during the year. During pregnancy, the sows are fed on oats; otherwise barley is the staple grain ration. In my experience the young pigs show less vitality when their dams have been fed largely on barley.

Separate feeding yards are provided for the small pigs where they can always find barley, whole or ground, and fresh buttermilk. It is very important to have the small pigs feeding well when they are weaned, and they should be fed liberally so as to keep a clean skin and a good appearance, without fattening fat.

I start fattening the pigs when they are 3 to 4 months old, and I give them all the barley chop they can eat and any buttermilk which is not needed for the small pigs. I feed regularly three times every day, but only what they will eat up clean.

The best sized pen is 12 ft. by 10 ft. with a 12 ft. trough and it gives room for ten hogs; larger pens and several hogs in each gives too much discomfort. The pens are cleaned out daily and some bedding is placed in one corner of each. Hogs do not thrive well unless they are kept absolutely clean and the skin free from scurf.

In order to secure the best results we must keep the hogs comfortable and treat them kindly. A hog so handled should gain on an average 1 1/4 lbs. per day from the day it was fattened until it is 5 months old. Beyond that age every pound of gain in weight costs more than under that age. My hogs have been in splendid health and I have not lost a single pig from disease.

This I attribute to the open air, exercise and excellent shelter afforded by the brush land surrounding my hog yard. It also provides shade in the summer for the young pigs. Nor West Farmer.

A schoolmaster once said to his pupils to the boy who would make the best piece of composition in five minutes on "How to Overcome Habit" he would give a prize. When the five minutes had expired a lad of nine years stood up and said: "Well, sr, habit is hard to overcome. If you take off the first letter it does not change 'abit.' If you take off another letter you still have a 'bit' left. If you take off still another, the whole of it remains. If you take off another it is not totally used up, all of which goes to show that if you want to get rid of habit you must throw it off altogether. Result—He won it."

No "Flying Start" required with this Mower

If your mower isn't a Frost & Wood, very likely you have to back it up several feet and get a "flying start" before the knives will cut. That is because it is made on the External Gear principle.

Now, with the Frost & Wood No. 8 Mower the knives commence cutting the instant the horses begin to move. That is because the No. 8 is designed on the Internal Gear principle.

Frost & Wood No. 8 Mower

We could tell you here the difference between External Gear Mowers and Internal Gear Mowers, but it would require a lot of space, and we can explain the difference more readily if you'll drop in and see us. We also want to show you the Large Bearings used in the Stay-tight Connection between Cutter Bar and Main Power Frame, as well as the Double Brace used to protect the working parts from jars and jolts—and several other features exclusive to the Frost & Wood No. 8 Mower. Call and see us at your earliest convenience.

REPRESENTATIVE CLAIM

U. S. WILL CONTEST JURISDICTION OVER HUDSON BAY

Washington's Government Officially Notifies Whalers that they Need Not Longer Recognize Hudson Bay as an Inland Sea in the Possession of Canada—Canada's Rights Never Before Disputed.

Ottawa.—The Evening Journal says: "It is the intention of the United States to contest, at the very first opportunity, the claim of Canada that Hudson Bay is an inland sea to which the Dominion of Canada has exclusive right, and over which the government of this country has complete jurisdiction and control."

"For over a year the authorities here have been aware that the time is rapidly approaching when Canada will be called upon to defend her rights to that valuable sheet of water or to allow them to be alienated from her."

"It is probable, of course, when at last time arrives the matter will be dealt with by arbitration, but if arbitration proceedings are unfruitful the question will be held before The Hague Tribunal for settlement."

"The action taken by the authorities at Washington to bring about a situation which would place the entire question and make of it an international affair, is direct and unmistakable. The owners and managers of trading vessels and whalers which proceed to these latitudes have been officially notified from the United States that they need not recognize Hudson Bay any longer as an inland sea in the possession of Canada."

"The refusal to recognize this world of course, by declining to pay the license and other charges levied by the Canadian government. This is suggested by Washington."

"So far during the years that have gone by no owner of an American vessel, trading or fishing in these waters, has ever been asked to contest the rights of Canada to complete jurisdiction over Hudson Bay. Indeed the dues have been paid gladly by traders for no other reason than that the benefits they derive far outweigh the small sums they are allowed. For instance they are allowed all facilities for replenishing their necessary supplies of fuel from the immense and valuable coal fields which are located north and south of the bay and beyond this, however, is the complete harmony and good relationship that exist between the Canadian government and its officials and the traders themselves. The traders are engaged in a legitimate business. Their security for the future depends very largely on a continuance of the pleasant relations which return the whalers and traders have done many kind and thoughtful acts for the Canadian government and others in the far north. Therefore up till now not one of them has taken any action upon the suggestion at Washington. Captain Cromer is one of the best known of the American traders who go to the bay. He has just paid a visit to Ottawa to consult with the authorities here upon some matters affecting his business and in conversation regarding the question of jurisdiction over Hudson Bay he stated he had no intention of availing himself of the authority he had received to refuse to pay the dues imposed by the Canadian government."

"These are merely nominal but the underlying principle is vital."

Mr. Asquith Has Made His

London.—Commenting on Asquith's measure dealing with the King's declaration, the Daily Graphic says: "The bill could not have chosen a more favorable moment for the bill. Since the men of all parties will welcome the new declaration."

The Chronicle says: "The bill seems likely to be so far from objectionable that the opposition, as such, will be against it. The Government's policy is logical and meets real grievance fully, therefore it contains a promise of stability."

The Daily Graphic congratulates the Government on its courage in attempting to deal with such a thorny subject. The comparatively small minority voting against the bill gives an inaccurate impression of opposition, but it is to be hoped that opposition will be concentrated not on the principle of the bill, but on the wording."

The Daily News says: "The new declaration is preferable to the old formula."

The Leader says there is no guarantee in the old form of the declaration with all its offensiveness to Catholics, which is not to be expected."

The Daily Telegraph says the proceedings in the Commons can only be regarded as the happy termination of King George's reign and of emphatic service to the moral unity of the empire."

The Morning Post says: "No doubt exists that the bill will pass substantially in its present form, and it is desirable that it passes should be marked by as little wrangling as possible."

The Times anticipates more extensive opposition on the second reading, but says, when taken into consideration with other safeguards, the declaration must surely be felt to afford every security the formula can give."

Immigrants After Gold

London.—Callers are flooding the British Columbia agent's office in connection with the immigration of a party by a number of Scots. There are indications that passenger agents are using the sensational report as a means of attracting passengers."

RECEIVES U. S. GOLD MEDAL

President of the Hudson-Fulton Commission Bears Thanks to His People in British Monarch

London.—King George gave an audience recently to General Stewart A. Woodford, of New York, president of the Hudson-Fulton celebration, accompanied by an official gold medal. Accompanying the medal was an address originally prepared for presentation to the late King Edward. This address expressed the thanks of the celebration for the presence of the representatives of His Majesty's government and pays a tribute to the English sea kings and expresses an appreciation of the Anglo-Saxon influence on American life.

In replying King George referred to his emotion upon receiving an address as originally intended for his father, "who had so cordially associated himself with the Hudson-Fulton celebration."

He thanked General Woodford, and added: "I know that this medal will be prized by the government of this country as a memento of the festival of 1846, and of that hospitality so warmly extended to those who represented my government on that occasion."

"I most heartily join in the hope expressed that our two countries may continue to be united by the bond of everything conducive to the peace and happiness of the whole world."

Talked of Annexation

London.—The Daily News scouts rumors that the Canadian government is planning to annex Hudson Bay. The paper says: "This idea is practically dead, that developments of our time are all against probability. The Canadian government is a companion of, deliberately severing its connection with our historic centres."

"Canadians are not in love with what they know of the national life of the United States. They may agree with Americans, better than they get on with many Britons of the kind, but they are not in love with the United States. They have failed in every attempt to make a place for themselves at home, but they have a preference for a thing beyond all this."

"True enough, American citizens are pouring into Canada. They are thought the best citizens; but what is not true is that they form people, they are against all other British crown."

Wonderful Mastery over Men of World

Plymouth, England.—The officers and misbehaviors of the American fleet, which visited Plymouth, attended the celebration in honor of St. Francis Drake. Replying to the toast "The English Squadron," Captain George R. Clark said: "I have noted with growing astonishment and admiration the Englishmen's wonderful mastery over men. Wherever Englishmen go they stand for law and order, progress and civilization. Order comes out of chaos, and the worst places are made glad. Americans are proud to claim relationship with such people."

There was some comment comparing these remarks with Roosevelt's Gull-hall speech.

Opportunities in Alberta

Calgary.—Although more than a thousand power paws and probably two thousand men are now in the past several months have been at work for twelve to sixteen hours daily breaking up and bucketing the land for provincial government reports show that only 1 per cent. of the total area of the province is now under cultivation. This statement which is most striking in view of the agricultural character of the province, is the result of the past four years, is, in the opinion of all, proof positive that the Canadian prairie is a land of great opportunity for the world's greatest wheat district elevating Canada to first place among wheat producing countries.

Equal to Last Year

Calgary.—Weather conditions are now very favorable for the crops in this district and under ordinary conditions there should be at least a three-quarter yield. The dry spring has seriously affected many fields, particularly those where the crops have been poor. Some fields will yield high, while others will scarcely produce anything. The late corn grain is making much better showing than that which was put in earlier in the season."

Kitcheners for Cairo is Latest Move

London.—The Daily Telegraph hears that Sir John G. Kitcheners, British agent, will become ambassador at Constantinople from which city Sir A. Sinclair, who has just been appointed permanent under-secretary of the foreign office. Says the Telegraph: "The move should open the way for the appointment of Lord Kitcheners as British Agent at Cairo."

Americans in Western Canada

Ottawa.—W. J. White, inspector of immigration, has been informed that the United States reports to the department that approximately 150,000 Americans will be in Western Canada this summer."

Joe Martin Here This Month

London.—Joe Martin is so persuaded that no ministerial crisis is imminent here, that he has arranged to sail for Canada next week, going through to the coast."

Edmonton Exhibition

This year on August 23rd, 24th, 25th and 26th, The Edmonton Exhibition Association Ltd., will hold its annual Stock Show and Race Meet at which over $30,000 will be distributed in Prizes, Purse and Attractions.

The Exhibition will be held on the new grounds acquired through the city of Edmonton, consisting of 147 acres, of land, about 80 of which are being devoted entirely to Exhibition purposes.

On these grounds modern stock buildings have been erected, a grand stand which will accommodate 5,000 people, besides Poultry and Dog, Dairy and Horticultural buildings, Race Stables, etc., and an up to date half mile standard race-track, the total expenditure on grounds and buildings exceeding $175,000. Another $200,000 will be expended on Exhibition buildings before 1912 when the Provincial Exhibition complete in all departments will be held in Edmonton. One feature of the 1912 Exhibition will be the running of the first Edmonton Futurity for 3 year-old trotters and pacers for which a stake of $5,000 has been guaranteed. A similar Futurity has been guaranteed to be run in 1913, guaranteed value of which is $5,500. Entries for both of these stakes close on September 1st. The Edmonton Futurity for 3-year-old running horses, value $1,000 will also be run in 1913, entries for which close on November 1st. About 60 entries have been already received for the Futurity for harness horses, and by Sept. 1st, it is expected that this number will be increased to 100.

Besides encouraging the breeding of racing stock, the Edmonton Association have also taken steps to promote breeding along other lines by forming the Alberta Provincial Horse, Cattle, Sheep and Swine Breeders Association having their headquarters and registered office in Edmonton.

Try the Money-Back Cure for Indigestion

Nine times in ten stomach derangements are responsible for yellow complexion, dull eyes and thin body.

It is the stomach that supplies nourishing blood to the muscles, the nerves, and skin. If the stomach is healthy, plenty of nutritious matter will be absorbed by the blood. If it is not healthy, the food will ferment, and undigested, will pass along through the bowels, furnishing so little nutritious matter that the blood becomes impoverished, and the glow of health vanishes.

If you suffer from nervousness, sick headache, belching of gas, sour taste in the mouth, heaviness after eating, or any other miserable stomach disturbance, you need M-c-o-s-a, and the sooner you get it the quicker you will be healthier and happier.

It will relieve any distressed stomach condition almost immediately. It will cure if used according to directions. H. W. Chambers sells it for 50 cents a large box, and he thinks enough of it to guarantee it to cure indigestion.

Farmer's Advocate Midsummer Number

The annual midsummer number of The Farmers Advocate and Home Journal, Winnipeg, was published June 29th. It is a 68 page edition in colored cover, well illustrated, and replete with seasonal matter for the farm and home. Special articles dealing with the westward movement of grain, the horses of Orkney and Shetland Islands, the farmer's position in politics, poultry raising in British Columbia, as well as shorter articles of interest to farmers and farmers' wives at this season, make this number of unusual value. It is printed on extra quality paper, the frontpiece shows a typical farm home and rural highway. The matter is of special interest, and a copy is well worth sending to friends in the South, in the East or in the Old Country as a souvenir of the land we live in. Several thousand extra copies have been printed for readers who desire to procure more than their usual one copy of the paper. It is supplied at 25 cents a copy.

"Ah! I've seen some rough times, sir," said an old salt. "Once we were wrecked, and we'd eaten all our provisions. Then we ate our belts, and then the ship turned turtle and we ate her too!"
